

DR. BOUMENAD Hadjera

The Disputes Settlement of the Foreign Investments in Washington Convention 1965

Keywords:

Investment disputes - Washington Convention of 1965 -
Arbitration - Conciliation

Abstract:

Washington Convention 1965 concerned as one of the international conventions specialized with settle disputes relative to the foreign investments that arise between the host country for the foreign investments, which is contractually connected to a foreign investor belongs to another contracting State, the consent of each of them to subject the dispute to the International Center established by virtue of the present Convention and which the dispute settlement through a system of international commercial conciliation and system of arbitration or put deposited by virtue of the Arbitration clause attracts by the parts to the dispute, It is due to its privacy, then the procedures are simple, speed and confidentiality, as well as the applicable legislation.